

Welcome!

The Library

- Is the place to start your research. Knowing how to find your way in the ever-expanding information world is a key skill for students and researchers.
- Supplies access to printed and digital resources and offers tools for identifying, locating, and organizing the literature you need for your studies or research.
- Is part of the Information Resource Center (IRC), housed in the spacious Campus Center (CC). Quiet, group, and individual study areas, equipped with WLAN, power and network connections offer space for learning in groups or individually.

Did you know that...

- You have access to over 30,000 electronic journals and 300,000 e-books?
- Interlibrary loan can get books and articles the IRC does not own or have access to?
- You can renew items yourself in My Library Account?
- Copy/print/scan machines are available on the first and third levels?
- Wireless internet access can be used throughout the building?
